

Baker Trail

The Baker Trail is a 133-mile, state-designated trail that runs through six counties including Armstrong County. The Baker Trail provides excellent opportunities for nature walks, day hiking, backpacking (including shelters), trail running, and much more. Attend the program to learn more about the trail, where to get on and off, interesting points along the trail, etc.

Date: Sunday, March 31

Time: 2:30 pm

Location: Outdoor Discovery Center - 142 Kerr Rd, Ford City, PA 16226

Cost: Free

The program will last about 45 minutes. For those interested, there will be an optional hike on the trail following the program (it runs through Crooked Creek).

The Outdoor Discover Center is operated by the Armstrong Center for Community Learning.
